

Daniel P. McCoy
Albany County Executive

Albany County Bullying Prevention Task Force

The Albany County Bullying Prevention Task Force is a multi-disciplinary team of professionals and educators committed to reducing bullying in our community by raising awareness and educating community and school-based youth, faculty, staff, and caregivers in order to promote safe and nurturing environments for youth.

- Bullying Prevention •
- Bystander Interventions •
- Character Education •

Programs can be tailored to meet the needs of all audiences including students (Pre-K to Grade12), administrators, faculty, support staff, athletic coaches, parents and guardians.

If you would like to schedule a program please email the task force at preventbullying@albanycounty.com

Daniel P. McCoy
Albany County Executive

Albany County

Bullying Prevention Task Force

Task force members offer additional services based on their respective organization's mission and population served. Please contact the appropriate representative below to receive more information on programs and services specific to your needs.

Albany County Crime Victim and Sexual Violence Center

Renisse Bains • Prevention Educator
renisse.bains@albanycounty.com • (518) 447-7100

Cornell Cooperative Extension Albany County

Nancy Lerner • Issue Leader
NKL1@cornell.edu • (518) 765-3521

Capital Region BOCES—CAPIT

Cathy Welling • Prevention Coordinator
cathy.welling@neric.org • (518) 464-3943

Equinox, Inc. Youth Services

Raydale Blaylock • Support Services Program Manager
rblaylock@equinoxinc.org • (518) 434 6135 ext.5383

Pride Center of the Capital Region

James Shultis • Youth Program Coordinator
jshultis@capitalpridecenter.org • (518) 462-6138