

I volunteer. What's your superpower?

By taking a few hours a week, I can make a big difference in my community. I have been trained as a Sexual Assault Hotline Advocate by the Albany County Crime Victim and Sexual Violence Center.

I can answer calls from people who need to talk to someone after hours.

I can accompany a sexual assault victim to the hospital and provide support during a critical time.

I can provide information and education to friends, neighbors and colleagues on preventing sexual violence.

Do you have the time to be a superhero?
